We pray for the happy repose of the souls of Kiea McCann and Dlava Mohamed who passed away following a tragic accident last Monday evening 31st July. May their young gentle and innocent souls rest in peace. We pray also for their families, may prayer ease their grief and bring comfort to them at this very sad and difficult time.

Last week many parishioners came to the cemetery to have their family graves looking very well for Cemetery Sunday. Indeed the beautiful appearance of the graves and the cemetery itself was a credit to the people of the area. It was very good to see so many people present in St. Mary's and Drumsnatt.

However, it is sad to learn that an incident of vandalism and theft has been reported. An item or items have been removed from a grave in the cemetery. This has happened before to the same grave and the family are naturally upset. They would like the stolen items to be returned. This can be done anonymously and without repercussions.
