Planning for the future of our parish

Our first meeting took place last Wednesday evening in Saint Mary's church. Thanks very much to the 18 parishioners present. Thanks also to Páraic Duffy and Geraldine Heaphey, members of the diocesan committee on parish planning, who give an excellent presentation on the setting up and running of a parish pastoral team. The meeting lasted for around an hour and consisted of guidance, sharing of ideas with each other, listening to each other and praying together.

The presenters shared guidance with us and asked us to share our ideas mainly on two questions. Firstly what gives you joy spiritually in your parish. What is going well and you are happy with. Secondly, what more can your parish do for you spiritually in times to come.

It is hoped that our next meeting will take place in January. The door is open for any other parishioners who may wish to be included. We plan to form a leadership team who can be involved in giving a greater sense of belonging in parish life especially to young people and young families. The future of your parish spiritually is up to all parishioners to be actively involved, take responsibility and do their best to help provide for the spiritual needs of all in the parish. May God guide us all and direct us in this important task.
